

BBC symposium

Speakers programme

MAY 14 & 15, 2024

Rose Bruffaerts

“Implementing computer-aided diagnostic models for neuroimages in a clinical setting – promise and pitfalls”

Isabelle Huys

“The application of data altruism in clinical research through empirical and legal analysis lenses”

Guy Nagels

“Artificial intelligence from bench to bedside in neurology, neurosurgery and psychiatry”

Laurent Servais

“The use of digital outcome measures in clinical trials in rare neurological diseases”

BBC symposium

Speakers programme

MAY 14 & 15, 2024

Giovanni Briganti

"The digital silhouettes of the mind :
how data is advancing mental health"

Keyrellous Adib

"Assessing the landscape of Artificial Intelligence in Mental Health Research"

Dinko Mitrečić

"Taking care of data: from a bench to a bedside and back"

Bernard Dan

"Research methodologies to improve the life of people with brain disorders"

Elisabeth Steindl

"To lag behind, or to leap frog that is the question : will the EU catch up to regulatory front runners in e-mental health?"

